John Hasbrouck 1833 - 1916

John and William David Hasbrouck's father and mother were Daniel M. Hasbrouck and Eunice Olmstead. To them were born nine children, including John and William David Hasbrouck at Woodstock, N.Y.

John, the oldest, as he grew older, got uneasy, wanted to get out of the mountains, and see more what was going on in the world. So when he was twenty-one with a little money he had earned, he started West where three of his uncles had settled. He took the canal boat at Albany, and rode to Buffalo. It is thought he started to walk, got to some place in Cattaraugus County where he went to work on a dairy farm for a season. From there he went on to Concord, Erie County, Pennsylvania where his Uncles were living, and stayed there a year or two. Then he wanted a home of his own. He heard of land for sale farther south, and went to Titusville, stayed all night with a man by the name of William Barnsdale, who had a brother living near the farm he later bought in Rome township, Crawford County, PA. The farm he bought had a large spring on it which was called the Morgan Spring. George Hummer lived there later. He built a small house near the spring. Still he was not satisfied. He wanted a wife, a housekeeper. So he "hikers" over the hill, through the woods, to another clearing where a big family of boys and girls lived by the name of Hummer. There he found a girl he liked, and she said "yes." So the John Hasbrouck from Woodstock, N.Y. and Sarah Marie Hummer of Rome Township were married in 1859 at Riceville. They had two children: Mary Etta and Emma Florilla. Then the Civil War broke out, and he answered the call of President Lincoln for troops, and enlisted in Company D, Eighteenth Pa. Cavalry, being mustered in on September 21, 1862. He served during the remainder of the war. When the struggle was over, he returned to his wife and home in Rome Township, and resumed his work at farming, becoming one of the best known and prosperous farmers in Eastern Crawford County.

After this four more children were born. Then his wife died in 1884, and in 1886 John married Sarah Shaw. She made a good home for him until she died in 1908. Then her sister, Jennie Shaw, kept house for him until he died in 1916 at the age of 82 years. Early in life Mr. Hasbrouck became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bethel.

His six children were Emma (who died of diphtheria at the age of ten), Mary Etta, Elias H., Alfred B., Estella and Lewis M. Mary Etta married A. George Davis of Corry. ## Hummers

“To forget one's ancestors is to be a book without a source,
a tree without a root.”

This is a little story about the Hummer Family
- written by one of the “Leaves.”

Adam Hummer and his wife Sarah Wyckoff Hummer settled at a place then known as Young's Mills, now called Sunnyside (near Clinton, N.J.) They had four sons and three daughters: Elias, Philip, James, Adam, Elizabeth, Rachel, and Katherine.

James married Ann Anderson and remained on the homestead.

Elias Hummer married Sarah Ann Conover, daughter of Joseph Conover and Kathrine Cool. Elias and Sarah Ann Hummer left New Jersey in 1834 with all their worldly goods in a two horse wagon with a canvas cover.

They cooked all the meals and slept in the wagon, and had with them two small children. It took a little over six weeks to reach their destination. They settled just above Hummer school house. They bought 150 acres of solid wood, and paid $2.50 an acre for it by written agreement without a single dollar in money. There were only two small farms in a radius of two miles of their land. The forest was inhabited by bears, wolves, deer, panther, wild cats, and snakes. It took them about two days to cut a road through the woods about one mile to a spring, and then they built a hut with one room. They made maple sugar which they exchanged for tea, coffee, and salt, and these they got by going on horseback about 100 miles to Erie.

The next move was to clear a plot of land sufficient to raise some potatoes from which clearing Elias Hummer cut hemlock trees 4 feet across the stump, and over 100 feet high. He cut trees with an axe made by a blacksmith, and cut them in 12 feet lengths and burned them. The first hay he cut on shares and hauled it two miles through the woods on a sled drawn by a yoke of oxen. He dug some holes in the ground for oats, and built a small tannery and tanned hides for the neighbors who came a distance of ten miles. It took him nearly ten years to clear his first ten acres.

They raised a family of six sons and five daughters. The oldest was Rachel Ann, John Farley, Rebecca, James W., Sarah Maria, Joseph C., Garrett Conover, George W., Elias Lynn, Fanny and Mary.

The four oldest boys joined the Army, only one came back (James W. ).
