James Kerr and His Descendants

James Kerr was born in 1776 and died in 1842. In 1799 he married Margy Alcorn. She was born in 1782, died in 1866. They are buried in the Union Cemetery, near Titusville, Pa.

James Kerr and Margy Alcorn were both born in Ireland. James came to America at the age of ten. He is the ancestor of the large family of Kerr's now living in the vicinity of Titusville, Pa. In 1794, he, with a cousin, Samuel Kerr, and a friend, Johnathan Titus came through an almost unbroken wilderness to what is now called Titusville, sleeping in a tent under a tree where the Titusville Herald office now stands. James located on the Church Run road, built a log cabin on what was later his son, William Kerr's farm (Uncle Bill) now the Grace Vosburgh home (1952).

In 1799 he returned to Frankstown, Pa., and married Margy Alcom, whose family had crossed in the same ship years before. They returned to Titusville, accompanied by her parents, who also settled in Oil Creek Twp. James served his country in the War of 1812. He died suddenly of heart trouble at the age of 66.
